AFFECT SETTLEMENT OF BRITISH WAR DEBT

SENATE PASSES A BILL APPROVING TERMS 70 TO 13

BILL NOW TO THE HOUSE FOR AGREEMENT ON MINOR AMENDMENTS

FINAL "SIGNING UP" OF REFUNDING PLAN EXPECTED IN A FEW DAYS

(By United Press)
Washington, Feb. 17.—Settlement of the British war debt to the United States was virtually affected today as a result of the senate's passage last night of the bill approving terms of the British refunding plan. The bill was sent back to the House today for agreement in amendments but these, it was believed, will not greatly delay it, and in a few days the final "signing up" of the refunding plan can be accomplished.

The amendments adopted were both prepared by democratic senators. One by Robinson of Arkansas, providing that future debt settlements with other nations shall be submitted to congress for approval, but at the same time relaxing very greatly the terms of the present debt funding law. The house bill would have given the president power to sanction whatever terms the commission might arrange, but the senators refused to repose so much power in presidential hands.

The other was the Harris amendment including democrats from now on in the membership of the American commission. Three democrats will be appointed on the commission which will consist of eight instead of five members if the Harris amendment remains in the bill.

The final vote showed, as was expected, an overwhelming belief in the senate just as it did in the house that the terms made with Great Britain were fair and just to both governments. Seventy senators voted for the settlement and 13 against it. The opposing votes were two or three in excess of earlier expectations, but way below the maximum of 20 which some administration leaders had set in their canvasses.

SAYS HE'S A "SPY, DOUBLE CROSSER, RAT"

Chicago, Feb. 17.—Albert Ballin is a "spy, double crosser and a rat," Allen O. Myers, member of the radical department of the Burns detective agency, declared today in testifying for depositions to be used in the Bridgeman, Mich., radical trial.

Ballin, star witness for the defense, had accused Myers of "framing" the Bridgeman communist convention and other "red" activities in order to obtain more money from business men to investigate the work of radicals.

William Z. Foster and other radical leaders were arrested when the convention was raided.

CHINESE STUDENT DIES FROM TWO DOSES OF NATIVE "CUREALL"

Los Angeles, Feb. 17.—The death in the psychopathic ward of the Los Angeles county hospital of Joseph Liu, a Chinese missionary student at the Bible institute here, was attributed by physicians to two doses of wan-yu-yoh, a Chinese compound said to comprise 60 ingredients, including pulverized tiger teeth, drops of tiger blood, sawdust, elephant hoofs, bear claws, bird feather and various vegetables.

Liu, a graduate of Shanghai college and a noted athlete in his native land, came to the United States two years ago. He obtained work at Fresno, Calif., where he became a Christian and a member of a Mennonite church.

About a week ago he became ill and called in Dr. G. Glass Davit, who had known him in Shanghai. The physician gave him a prescription, but when he called again the patient was delirious. In a lucid period Liu admitted he had thrown away the American medicine, and sought relief in wan-yu-yoh, which the Chinese are said to believe has supernatural power to heal.

NEW ARRESTS PEND IN CONNECTION WITH POSTAL AND MINT ROBBERIES INVOLVING MILLIONS IN CASH, ETC.

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Feb. 17.—New arrests impended today in connection with postal and mint robberies involving millions in stolen securities and cash.

Federal post office inspectors who brought indictment of 22 Twin City bankers and bond brokers last September were said to have rounded up ring leaders in the gigantic stolen bond syndicate that flooded more than $1,000,000 worth of stolen bonds into the northwest last fall. Most of those indicted are scheduled for trial next month.

Circulation of more than $100,000 worth of currency said to have been stolen in the Denver mint robbery last December is reported to have brought about discovery of the leaders in the syndicate. The fact that the Denver mint loot was in circulation here was told exclusively by the United Press two weeks ago.

St. Paul, Feb. 17.—Federal agents here today awaited expected arrests in Western cities in connection with the Denver mint robbery and huge bond thefts from the mails in New York, Chicago, Cincinnati and San Francisco.

"There will be no further arrests here so far as I know," W. J. Marles, chief of post office inspectors in the northwest, informed the United Press by telephone from Crookston.

"We have been investigating the bond theft cases for months and the indictment of 26 men here last fall for handling stolen bonds ends arrests in the northwest so far as we are concerned in that case. Any further arrests which may come as the result of our investigation will probably not be made here."

Ralph Hugdall, assistant to Mar-

les in the bond cases, refused to affirm or deny that he had disclosed "higher ups" in the bond theft cases by a ruse. He was said to have been aided in the trick by Pinkerton men and bankers. J. L. Lawler and his chief maintained they knew nothing of the report.

Inspector Marles said any arrests that might be made in connection with the circulation of thousands of dollars of currency stolen in the Denver mint robbery would be made by the treasury department operatives. E. L. Linner, chief of secret service men here and W. J. Edwick, operative, who has been following the mint case while Linner was in Florida, declined to give any information. They intimated arrests were expected and admitted there had been prospects of an alleged stolen bond disposal syndicate. Asked if arrests might be made here in connection with the mint robbery they said that they "didn't know". Edick admitted that he had "something up his sleeve".

Thousands of dollars worth of Liberty bonds and other securities stolen in mail robberies in other cities have been recovered here as a result of arrests made last fall. The 26 men indicted last September are now at liberty under $5,000 bail each and will not come to trial until April. It was understood their trials were delayed pending further prospects of alleged syndicates holding stolen bonds throughout the country.

A large number of bills stolen in the Denver mint robbery had been recovered here through banks.

Thousands of dollars worth of the bills bearing numbers of those stolen in Denver were in circulation.

ADMINISTRATION'S SHIP SUBSIDY BILL AGAIN HOLDS STAGE

RESTORED TO POSITION AS UNFINISHED BUSINESS BY THE SENATE

DEMOCRAT MOTION TO ADJOURN WAS BEATEN BY 30 TO 38 VOTE

(By United Press)
Washington, Feb. 17.—The administration ship subsidy bill today was again holding the center of the senate's stage after a sharp short struggle in which its supporters were able to marshal their forces ahead of their opponents.

The bill was restored to its position as the unfinished business of the senate by a vote late last night on the debt bill. Senator Robinson, Arkansas, democrat, moved to adjourn but was beaten 30 to 38, and the senate then approved a request by Senator Jones of Washington that the subsidy come up.

The fight to displace it or keep it from progressing any nearer a final vote will be resumed today or Monday when a motion will be made to take up other business.

Exactly two weeks of the session remain and in that time besides the subsidy several conference reports on appropriation bills must be disposed of and the farm bloc will insist on action on at least two bills of which may lead to considerable debate.

ALLEGED HEAD OF SWINDLE RING GUILTY

Chicago, Feb. 17.—John W. Worthington, alleged head of a $50,000,000 swindle ring, was found guilty of using the mails to defraud by a jury in federal court here today.

Worthington, as head of the American Banking and Security company, was accused of having defrauded investors in all sections of the country through false schemes. Worthington, who is 72 years old, took the verdict calmly. He has served previous penitentiary sentences for schemes to defraud. The verdict was returned in Judge Charles Alschuler's court after the jury had deliberated throughout the night.

50 Indictments Sought In Mer Rouge Murders

Bastrop, La., Feb. 17.—Attorney General A. V. Cocco and Senator Howard Warren, special assistant attorney general, were expected to arrive today from Shreveport, to investigate the record of the 20 men selected by the Morehouse parish jury commission from which a grand jury will be drawn March 5 to investigate hooded band activities in the parish. The attorney general, who personally conducted the recent open hearing here, has stated he would seek from 50 to 60 indictments in connection with the series of kidnappings, and slaying of Watt Daniels and Thomas Richard of Mer Rouge last summer.

LATE BULLETINS

(By United Press)
Washington, Feb. 17.—The agricultural appropriation bill carrying $69,500,000 was finally sanctioned by the house today, and now goes to the president for his signature.

San Diego, Feb. 17.—Dr. Louis L. Jacobs, 30, captain in the United States public health service, was today arrested on a charge of having murdered Fritz Mann, dancer.

* DIPLOMATIC GAME SUCCEEDS THE ARMY MOVES IN NEAR EAST *

(By United Press)
Constantinople, Feb. 17.—Ismet Pasha, Turkish foreign minister, arrived here today for a conference with General Harlington, British commander in the near east. It is not expected that their parley will result in any eleventh hour peace settlement, as Ismet has no more power to act now than when he walked out of the Lausanne conference. Rumors of possible clashes which would start a war in the Near East persisted today, but without confirmation. A Sofia dispatch said a British battalion had arrived on the east bank of the Maritza river in Thrace, thus entering territory assigned to Turkey under the Mudania armistice, and that the Turkish population was indignant. Advances from Ankara are that the Turks will draft their own version of a Near East peace treaty and submit it to the allies as the next move in the diplomatic game now being played.

ENGLISH MAY WITHDRAW ARMY

MAY FOLLOW LEAD OF AMERICA IN ACTION REGARDING THE RUHR

(By United Press)
Bomb throwing, sporadic shooting and drastic penalties on German officials marked French occupation of the Ruhr today.

Contrary to reports from London yesterday that the conference between British and French officials had broken down without any agreement being reached on occupation, Paris dispatches now say the British have agreed to partially withdraw from their zone on the Rhine to clear the way for transportation of French troops and German coal.

London dispatches said Bonar Law had in fact informed the French he was ready to withdraw the army altogether following the example of America. Poincare announced in Paris that the British were anxious not to hinder the French in any way. Burgomasters of Essen and Oberhausen were sentenced to three years in jail for defying French commands.

American Goods Released

Berlin, Feb. 17.—First American goods seized by the French as the result of the latter's Ruhr blockade had been ordered released by the foreign office, according to reports to American authorities here and from the embassy in Paris.

WOMAN WIELDED STILETTO ON MAN

HEART WOUND ALSO GUN SHOT WOUND FOUND IN DEAD MAN'S BODY

(By United Press)
Los Angeles, Feb. 17.—A stiletto wound in the heart of Earle Remington, aviator and clubman, was disclosed in an autopsy conducted today by County Surgeon A. F. Wagner.

The stiletto wound entered the body approximately two inches from one gun shot wound, and ran nearly to the center of the heart.

That a woman's hand wielded the slender blade at the same time her male companion fired a charge of buck shot, is the theory of the police. More than 24 shot, believed to be of No. 6 size, were found in Remington's body. The woman probably plunged the stiletto into Remington's heart as he rallied from the charge of shot fired into his body, it is believed.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE FINANCES ARE BEING INVESTIGATED IN NEW YORK; WM. H. ANDERSON IS QUESTIONED

(By United Press)
New York, Feb. 17.—The question of whether further action will be taken by the authorities in their investigation of William H. Anderson's handling of Anti-Saloon League finances depends today on what reply he makes to Assistant District Attorney Pecora's demand for full information.

Pecora in a letter to Edgar P. Brackett, Anderson's counsel states that he must know more about how the Anti-Saloon League superintendent came into possession of the $24,700 which he says he expended in behalf of the league in 1913 to 1914.

Anderson, according to Pecora was drawing $4,000 a year at the time he made his money and claims it was made for him by a friend in Baltimore, in realty deals.

Pecora says Anderson refuses to reveal this friend's name and that furthermore he insists he kept the money in greenbacks in his office and never deposited it in a bank.

Already nearly a score of bootleggers plans for the raids have been made and the arrests are expected to add those of about two weeks ago when more than 50 persons were caught in the prohibition drag net.

29 TO 21 SCORE WAS PILED UP AT PINE RIVER FEB 16

LOCALS PLAYED SLOWLY AND NOT UP TO USUAL FORM OF PAST

"W. G." SAYS THEY MUST BRACE UP FOR LITTLE FALLS GAME

(By W. G.)

Brainerd beat Pine River 29 to 21 last night on the agricultural aggregation's floor. Pine River has greatly improved since the last meeting of both teams, showing much promise as a strong conference contender.

The locals worked poorly with absolutely none of the old team work that has brought them thus far with eight victories and one loss in their credit. Pine River kept the first quarter interesting by running along with the more experienced squad, but later dropped back, until the end of the last half registered 16 to 8. From then on no trouble was given the locals, despite the vigorous efforts of the plucky scrappers of the north.

Brace Up Brainerd

Brainerd doesn't stand a ghost of a show with Little Falls in the former's present condition. Their defense has deteriorated and their offense is no better. It seems a shame that a team, after all the illustrious victories which showed skill, that rivalled any in the conference, should dribble out in defeat in the end.

But Brainerd isn't going to be beaten next Thursday by her old opponents, because it is in the hands of the battlers themselves whether we win or lose.

Look over the line-up and possibilities in the ensuing tilt. Every man is a star in himself with enough sand to make him a match for anything his size.

Little Falls isn't any better than Brainerd when the home cagers are in shape. Brainerd has to get its team work in hand, as well as its physical condition to top notch, so as to be in the peak of condition for Thursday.

The line-up for last night's battle was:

Pine River	Brainerd
Berlinun	F.....Engbretson
Robideau	F.....Hess
Jones	C.....Zakariassen
Schwartz	G.....Lowe
Christian	G.....Heikkinen
Field goals, Pine River, Berlinun
2, Robideau 1, Schwartz 1, Christian 3.
Brainerd: W. Engbretson 1, Hess 4, Zakariassen 3, Heikkinen 1, E. Engbretson 3, Day 1.
Foul goals, Pine River, Robideau
6 out of 15, Berlinun 1 out of 7.
Brainerd, Engbretson 3 out of 9.
Substitutions, Pine River, Orres for Christian, Christian for Orres.
Brainerd, Engbretson for Hess, Day for Zakariassen, Orth for Lowe.
Officials, Adams of St. Cloud.

Washington, Feb. 17.—A second big roundup of bootleggers in the nation's capital was started here today.

Federal prohibition agents and local police at one o'clock had arrested about 35 persons charged with posers' haunts had been raided. Extensive or selling liquor.

Already nearly a score of bootlegging plans for the raids have been made and the arrests are expected to add those of about two weeks ago when more than 50 persons were caught in the prohibition drag net.

29 TO 21 SCORE WAS PILED UP AT PINE RIVER FEB 16

LOCALS PLAYED SLOWLY AND NOT UP TO USUAL FORM OF PAST

"W. G." SAYS THEY MUST BRACE UP FOR LITTLE FALLS GAME

(By W. G.)

Brainerd beat Pine River 29 to 21 last night on the agricultural aggregation's floor. Pine River has greatly improved since the last meeting of both teams, showing much promise as a strong conference contender.

The locals worked poorly with absolutely none of the old team work that has brought them thus far with eight victories and one loss. Their credit. Pine River kept the first quarter interesting by running along with the more experienced squad, but later dropped back, until the end of the last half registered 16 to 8. From then on no trouble was given the locals, despite the vigorous efforts of the plucky scrappers of the north.

Brace Up Brainerd

Brainerd doesn't stand a ghost of a show with Little Falls in the former's present condition. Their defense has deteriorated and their offense is no better. It seems a shame that a team, after all the illustrious victories which showed skill, that rivaled any in the conference, should dribble out in defeat in the end.

But Brainerd isn't going to be beaten next Thursday by her old opponents, because it is in the hands of the battlers themselves whether we win or lose.

Look over the line-up and possibilities in the ensuing tilt. Every man is a star in himself with enough sand to make him a match for anything his size.

Little Falls isn't any better than Brainerd when the home cagers are in shape. Brainerd has to get its team work in hand, as well as its team work in hand, as well as its physical condition to top notch, so as to be in the peak of condition for Thursday.

The line-up for last night's battle was:

Pine River	Brainerd
Berlin	F. Engbretson
Robideau	F. Hess
Jones	C. Zakariassen
Schwartz	G. Lowe
Christian	G. Heikkinen
Field goals	Pine River, Berlin
2. Robideau 1, Schwartz 1, Christian 3.	Brainerd: W. Engbretson 1, Hess 4, Zakariassen 3, Heikkinen 1, E. Engbretson 3, Day 1.
Foul goals	Pine River, Robideau
6 out of 15, Berlin 1 out of 7.	Brainerd, Engbretson 3 out of 9.
Substitutions	Pine River, Orres for Christian, Christian for Orres.
Brainerd, Engbretson for Hess, Day for Zakariassen, Orth for Lowe.	Officials, Adams of St. Cloud.

BUSINESS AS USUAL

No Mere Fire Can Stop Activities of Brainerd Business & Professional Women's Club

"Business (and pleasure) as usual!" So say the members of the Business & Professional Women's club, who held their regular weekly bridge class in the club rooms over the Lyceum theatre Thursday evening. The members of Miss Fogelstrom's basketry class joined them at lunch which was served by Miss Mary A. Scott and Miss Islay McColl.

Burned out completely late Sunday afternoon, new club rooms were secured on Tuesday, and on Wednesday some furniture was installed. The purchasing committee and the house committee, the respective chairmen being Islay McColl and Mrs. Adeline Smiley, did some good team work, the result being very cozy and attractive club rooms.

Frosted wicker furniture, upholstered in gay flowered cretonne, including comfortable rockers, a day bed, desk and matching chair, also wicker lamp with cretonne-lined shade, give a pleasing effect. A four-panel screen in green burlap, a wicker fernery filled with growing plants, and several pretty framed pictures, make the rooms very restful and inviting.

Pittsimmans and Wagner presented the club with the large reading lamp, and it certainly is appreciated by the members. This is the second lamp they have given the club, the first one having been destroyed in Sunday's fire.

An Easter sale of candy, cookies, cakes, also dainty handkerchiefs and aprons, will be held the week before Easter. The committee in charge will be announced later.

Desert Oases.

The oases are places in the desert where subterranean water from the more or less distant mountains breaks through a layer of marl, or is helped through it by the digging of wells. Practically now in the desert is rain entirely unknown, but often none falls for years, the cause being that the prevailing winds tend to be from the center of the region toward its edges, and so carry little moisture.

MRS HERMAN BENEDIX DIED

Passed Away at the Home of Her Daughter, Mrs. J. C. Britton, 901 South Seventh St.

Mrs. Herman Benedix, of Pillager, died at 10:15 Saturday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Britton, 901 South Seventh street, death resulting from dropsy and heart disease.

Elizabeth Rauchhaus was born in Wenderhausen, Germany, January 4, 1851. There she was married to Herman Benedix on December 18, 1874. Six children were born to this union, all of whom are living, one daughter, Mrs. J. C. Britton of Brainerd, and five sons, Nick of Hywood, Minn., Henry and Carl of Pillager, Louis of Pequot and William of Peru, Ill.

The family moved to America in 1880, landing in New York on October 14th, and settling at La Salle, Ill., where they lived for three years. From La Salle they moved to Peru, Illinois, and here they resided until coming to Pillager in 1905. Mr. Benedix has since that time been engaged as a farmer in Cass county.

Mrs. Benedix has been ailing for some time, and was brought to the home of her daughter about eight weeks ago, that she might receive better medical care. All of her children have been to visit her in the past month, and all will be here for the funeral with the exception of her sons in Peru, Ill., and Hywood.

The deceased was a German Lutheran by faith, but on account of being so far removed from a church of her denomination, she had not attended for a number of years.

The funeral will be held from the home of her daughter on Monday afternoon at two o'clock from the Britton home, 901 South Seventh street, Rev. E. A. Cooke of the Methodist church officiating, and interment will be made in Evergreen cemetery.

HOME FROM NEW YORK

H. F. Michael Secures Service of a Resident Buyer in Metropolis of the Nation

H. F. Michael has returned from New York, called home to adjust the loss by smoke on the stocks of the H. F. Michael Co. He had intended spending the entire week in New York. He did, however, accomplish his main purpose in going to the metropolis in securing the services of a resident buyer who will look after the store's interests in this city.

Mr. Michael states that there are over 7,000 women's ready to wear manufacturers in Greater New York. These firms are of varied sizes from the man who operates a few machines to those who operate large numbers of them. He says that there is no line of manufacture so unstable in its regular output as the garment manufacturers. One season the manufacturer will produce an excellent, stylish garment at a very reasonable price. Another season he may have different designers and his garments may not be at all attractive.

The resident buyer keeps in touch with these situations and advises his client.

"The great problem of the woman's ready to wear game," said Mr. Michael, "is to have the right style at the right time. No more can a large stock be purchased at the beginning of the season to last through the season. This resident buyer will be able to select new garments as they are desired throughout the season, thus keeping the stock fresh and always something new to be shown and at the lowest prices the market affords."

The buyer who will work with the H. F. Michael Co. has a number of other firms in this state with whom he has worked most satisfactorily.

Speaking of business conditions, Mr. Michael said he found a very optimistic spirit. It is being recognized that international relations must be more amicably adjusted before we can have the fullest prosperity, but a good business year when all who wish to work will be given an opportunity to do so, seems to be expected.

Announcements will be made in the Dispatch soon regarding the disposition of that portion of the Michael stock damaged by smoke.

WRITES FROM TEXAS

Frank D. French of Houston, Formerly Brainerd, Misses City's 50th Anniversary

The Dispatch is in receipt of a letter from Frank D. French, formerly of Brainerd, and now located in Houston, Texas.

Mr. French wishes to be remembered to his old friends and especially mentioned Prof. J. A. Wilson, Senator Hilding Swanson and former Deputy Sheriff John Byrnes.

It had been Mr. French's intention to be present at Brainerd's fiftieth anniversary celebration last summer, but in this he was disappointed. He hopes to visit in the city the coming season.

Fire Destroys Home

Fire destroyed the winter home of W. F. Sutzer, proprietor of Springside Resort on Upper Gull Lake. Mr. Sutzer had built a fire in the stove and then went back to bed, and was awakened by the smoke and flames. He had barely time to get out of the house and nothing was saved. He had all the clothing and other goods from the summer cottages in the house. The property was partly covered by insurance.

From La Salle they moved to Peru, Illinois, and here they resided until coming to Pillager in 1906. Mr.
Benedix has since that time been engaged as a farmer in Cass county.

Mrs. Benedix has been ailing for some time, and was brought to the home of her daughter about eight weeks ago, that she might receive better medical care. All of her children have been to visit her in the past month, and all will be here for the funeral with the exception of her sons in Peru, Ill., and Hywood.
The deceased was a German Lutheran by faith, but on account of being so far removed from a church of her denomination, she had not attended for a number of years.

The funeral will be held from the home of her daughter on Monday afternoon at two o'clock from the Britton home, 901 South Seventh street, Rev. E. A. Cooke of the Methodist church officiating, and interment will be made in Evergreen cemetery.

The Most Deserted Isle.

A pointed canoe is all that remains of the lofty mountain that in some past era dominated the now sunken valleys west of the Hebrides. Only four landings are recorded. The first was made in 1816 and the last in 1895.

HOME FROM NEW YORK

H. F. Michael Secures Service of a Resident Buyer in Metropolis of the Nation

H. F. Michael has returned from New York, called home to adjust the loss by smoke on the stocks of the H.
F. Michael Co. He had intended spending the entire week in New York. He did, however, accomplish his main purpose in going to the metropolis in securing the services of a resident buyer who will look after the store's interests in this city.

Mr. Michael states that there are over 7,000 women's ready to wear manufacturers in Greater New York.
These firms are of varied sizes from the man who operates a few machines to those who operate large numbers of them. He says that there is no line of manufacture so unstable in its regular output as the garment manufacturers. One season the manufacturer will produce an excellent, stylish garment at a very reasonable price. Another season he may have different designers and his garments may not be at all attractive.

The resident buyer keeps in touch with these situations and advises his client.

"The great problem of the woman's ready to wear game," said Mr.
Michael, "is to have the right style at the right time. No more can a large stock be purchased at the beginning of the season to last through the season. This resident buyer will be able to select new garments as they are desired throughout the season, thus keeping the stock fresh and always something new to be shown and at the lowest prices the market affords."

The buyer who will work with the H. F. Michael Co. has a number of other firms in this state with whom he has worked most satisfactorily.

Speaking of business conditions,
Mr. Michael said he found a very optimistic spirit. It is being recognized that international relations must be more amicably adjusted before we can have the fullest prosperity, but a good business year when all who wish to work will be given an opportunity to do so, seems to be expected.

Announcements will be made in the Dispatch soon regarding the disposition of that portion of the Michael stock damaged by smoke.

WRITES FROM TEXAS

Frank D. French of Houston, Formerly Brainerd, Misses City's 50th Anniversary

The Dispatch is in receipt of a letter from Frank D. French, formerly of Brainerd, and now located in Houston, Texas.

Mr. French wishes to be remembered to his old friends and especially mentioned Prof. J. A. Wilson, Senator Hilding Swanson and former Deputy Sheriff John Byrnes.

It had been Mr. French's intention to be present at Brainerd's fiftieth anniversary celebration last summer, but in this he was disappointed. He hopes to visit in the city the coming season.

Fire Destroys Home

Fire destroyed the winter home of
W. F. Sitzer, proprietor of Springside Resort on Upper Gull Lake. Mr. Sitzer had built a fire in the stove and then went back to bed, and was re-wakened by the smoke and flames. He had barely time to get out of the house and nothing was saved. He had all the clothing and other goods from the summer cottages in the house. The property was partly covered by insurance.

AN APPEAL TO AROUSED PASSIONS

It is hard to see how editors can find anything in the confession of three boys aged 17, 15 and 14 years respectively, to the murder of a veteran of the World war, by which they can build up an argument for capital punishment. Surely no one in our enlightened state would ask that these boys be given the death penalty. The fact that they are self-confessed murderers throws the burden back upon society. Something must be done by a society which produces youthful murderers, to so reorganize itself that youths will be faced about from pranks that lead to murder, and be brought to see the relationships that bind society together in a unity of which they are a part.

A social order that produces youthful murderers is condemned. Such youths are the product of the social order and are so youthful that they have had little to do with making the order of society in which they have been shaped. A society that chases the dollar and seeks to obtain it by any means, measuring the standard of a man by the amount of money he has in his pocket, is preparing for just such tragedies as the one that has shocked this state. So long as girls are allowed to hold the view that a man is to be measured by the extravagance he assumes in catering to their desires and whims by giving them a good time, and are ready to encourage their boy friends to provide these, youths may be expected to seek to supply the cravings of their girl friends, obtaining money by robbing their fellow citizens.

If society would take a careful diagnosis of itself and seek to prescribe remedies for the social evils that are so prevalent instead of seeking to avenge itself upon those who, shaped by the society in which they live, commit crimes that shock a people who fail to see that their social standards have invited the crimes, there would be more hope of arresting the lawlessness that is sweeping over the land like a flood.

When these boys pleaded guilty to the crime of murder society itself stood before the bar of judgment under indictment. When the evidence is in, society itself is convicted, and instead of exterminating the boys it must get rid of the defects of the social structure that led them to attempt to get dollars easily which, in turn, led them to shoot a man when it seemed that his resistance threatened their liberty. What is needed is a revaluation of life that measures manhood not by its appendages but by its intrinsic worth, that encourages a respect for the sanctity of the personal property of others and places a higher estimate upon human life. Anything that places things above human qualities, getting by any possible means above the sanctity of property, and the dare-devil spirit over against an intelligent effort to safeguard the gift of life is a menace to society and an invitation to criminality.

Hanging these youths would not change the society that made them criminals. Changing the society that made them criminals will save other youths from standing before the bar of justice as self-confessed murderers. Capital punishment does not remove a cause; it removes an effect; for the criminal is the product of the social order in which he lives. In many cases it would be well to hang his great-grandfather, and sometimes it is wise to put him in the penitentiary to save him from society. We need to save youths from a criminal-producing social order as much or more than we need to have society from criminals.

REFUSING TO FOLLOW THE LEADER

It has been evident for some time that President Harding is much more able than certain members of his party from whom he might reasonably expect support for his policies. When the history of the Harding administration is read it will be found that the president has measured up to a position that not all of those who voted for him expected him to attain. Many thought that his experience in the senate, where he had generally been thought of as one of the "old guard," had unfitted him for leadership. His tenure in office has proved that he is able to lead but that his followers are not willing to be led.

The administration stands pledged to a program of economy and retrenchment. The budget system introduced by the administration promised to further this program, but when the budget bureau, intent upon limiting unnecessary expenditures, placed the appropriation for rivers and harbors at a figure high enough to serve present needs, the senate forthwith added on about 50 per cent. When the president stated that he expected the department to keep its expenditures within the amount recommended by the budget bureau the senators became very angry and demanded that all the money voted by them be expended for the projects they wish to have financed.

It is quite likely that senators will gain some votes in 1924 through conferring blessings upon their constituents at the expense of the federal government, but the republican party will not be made popular by this method.

The country at large is demanding retrenchment, and unless the present administration is able to curb expenditures there will be an inevitable reckoning in 1924. It is, therefore, most unfortunate that, when the leader of the party asks that retrenchment be made the policy of congress, members of his own party persist in alienating the good-will of the people by insisting on extravagant appropriations. Such senators are very clearly attempting to build their own fences against the tide even though they are at the same time tearing down the dike that would hold back the flood that threatens to engulf their party.

CONGRESSMAN KNUTSON BLAMES FRANCE

It would be hard to determine just what proportion of his constituency Congressman Harold Knutson represents in the stand that he has taken on the troubled affairs of Europe. The congressman is very much opposed to the French invasion of the Ruhr valley and holds that a strengthened Germany is a necessity in view of the possible conflict between the white and yellow races. The representative from the Sixth Minnesota district attempted to prove to congress that the attitude of the French is based upon the growth of population in Germany, leading to a desire in French hearts to hold Germany down, because of the danger to herself she claims to find in a restored Germany.

But the significant part of the congressman's speech is that in which he demands that the United States take a more active part in European affairs. Congressman Knutson expressed the belief that the next election will be fought over the issue of America's attitude to Europe. As the republican whip in the house of representatives for a number of years he has been brought into touch with the affairs of the party, and when he speaks in such a way it is fair to assume that the republican party is becoming concerned over the attitude of the administration to European questions. It is in every way likely that the administration wishes to make a move in Europe but is not convinced that in so doing it would have the support of the country as a whole. The position assumed by Congressman Knutson, and taken a little earlier by the senior senator from Minnesota, may have been expressed for the purpose of challenging public sentiment in Minnesota.

While it may not appear at this time that sentiment is swinging towards America's entry into European affairs in a more deliberate way, there are clear evidences that many more people are demanding just this. In the Northwest, where conditions have been influenced by Europe's inability to purchase foodstuffs, there is a growing demand that the United States enter Europe even though certain involvements may result from such a course. Many who voted the republican ticket in 1920, because the platform called for this country's entrance into an association of nations, are disappointed at the outcome of our foreign policy. Perhaps Congressman Knutson has been advised of a growing demand for American interference in European affairs.

THE Chilean government concluded that even prominent American legislators might carry disease into Chile and demanded that they either get vaccinated or stay in the United States. The Chilean government concludes that it is impossible to determine who may have "bugs."

MARRYING is the fashion in the movie colony during these days. Some are hindered from marrying by their contracts and others are anxious to break their marriage contracts. There is a clashing of contracts and the stronger will survive.

IN JANUARY

Attendance Shows a Slight Increase Over December—Harrison Has Steady Increase

PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTESTS

First State Examinations for the Upper Grades will be Held March 22 and 23

The attendance in the Brainerd schools for the month of January shows a slight increase over that for December and the number of new pupils entering during the month was slightly in excess of pupils who withdrew.

The Harrison school has continued to show a steady increase since the beginning of the year and is slightly larger at the present time than at any period since the opening of the school.

It is quite likely that primary classes, not kindergarten classes, will be started, as soon as the cold weather abates sufficiently, in several quarters of the city, where school room facilities make it possible. These classes will be under the direction of the normal training supervisors, Miss Waterman and Miss Molstad, assisted by their normal training girls. They will be for children who will be six years of age by September next and will not be open for enrollment after the classes have once got fairly started.

During the last few weeks, three contests in public speaking have been held at the high school, to which the public was invited. The attendance at these contests was disappointing from the standpoint of the inspiration of numbers as an encouragement to increase the activity along this line in the local high school.

Basketball Season
Now that the high school basketball season is drawing toward the end of the schedule, the upper grade boys in the several ward schools will be looking forward to their interschool try-outs under the leadership of Mr. Rosel assisted by the high school basketball squad. The high school boys are learning that from an athletic standpoint in the school it pays to give attention to these younger brothers in the grades, who are the material from which the recruiting will be made a few years hence.

The first state examinations for the upper grades will be held on March 22nd and 23rd. Last year, a very large percent of papers were sent down to the state from this examination and a considerable number of eighth grade pupils completed all of their high school entrance requirements at this time and were able to get a good start on straight high school work before the end of the year. Parents having pupils in the eighth grade would do well to bear these dates in mind and encourage home study in anticipation of the same, as it may mean a great deal in the pupil's advancement in high school work.

The donation of beautiful flags by the Red Cross and Circle Ladies and the G. A. R. to two of the newer schools in the city was a very creditable and impressive event and the schools highly appreciated the act of the donors.

"BREAKS" A BIG FACTOR IN BASEBALL

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Feb. 17.—Bad luck is the first alibi of a poor loser. Winners as a rule make their own breaks, but the element of chance is really what makes all games a sport.

The "breaks" are considered the big thing in baseball and they are a bigger factor on the diamond perhaps than on any other field of athletics.

The "breaks" in baseball are not confined to the field, however. Luck in getting players is more of a factor in building winning ball clubs than in polling home runs and pitching one hit games.

The New York Yankees have four of the finest scouts in the country. Their system of combing the bush leagues is the most expensive in baseball, but it has never returned a dividend of a nickel.

In eight years, the New York American League club has not discovered one real find in two hundred chances is a fair average in baseball, he blames. They just didn't have the luck.

George W. Grant, owner of the Boston Braves, has given deep thought to the subject because his club can't afford to pay big money for developed stars and depends largely on what it can pick up in the rough.

One real find in two hundred chances is a fair average in baseball, he figures.

Some clubs have luck in gobs. In the last four years, the Cincinnati Reds have had phenomenal luck in getting great young players. In fact the Reds have gotten all the finds in the major leagues.

Pat Duncan, Pete Donahue, Harper, Bohne, Fonseca and Pinelli are a huge assortment to pick up for nothing and the Reds did that very thing, for practically no outlay of cash was made.

John McGraw has turned up more star players perhaps than any other manager in the game, but he did not profit by it as he should have. McGraw always plays today's game today and does not bother about tomorrow. He didn't have time to bother with Rommel, Roush, Groh and a flock of others and he turned them over to others to be polished and brightened for the future.

Dorothy Dalton in Great Paramount Picture at Lyceum

E. Phillips Oppenheim Story at Lyceum Sunday

In the world of fiction, the name of E. Phillips Oppenheim, stands in the front rank. He is a master in the handling of mysteries and romantic plots, and his novels invariably possess all the elements that go for effective picturization. Mr. Oppenheim is an Englishman, a prolific and entertaining writer, and a frequent contributor to the Cosmopolitan Magazine, the Saturday Evening Post, and other publications. The Peter Ruff stories are among his creations. Mr. Oppenheim has written many stories which have been screened, notably "Dangerous Lies" which is to be shown at the Lyceum Sunday.

"Experience"

The elite of New York was recruited for the big Paramount picture, "Experience," that comes to the Lyceum theatre on Monday and Tuesday. Wives of the most prominent business men of that city, put aside their social duties for a day to appear in the gorgeous cabaret scene, which is an important feature of the picture.

As the habitués of cabarets along the Great White Way are, in a great number, society folk, George Fitzmaurice, the director, induced the social lights of the city to come to the Paramount studio on Long Island and appear before the screen as "extras." The response was most generous.

Never before, perhaps, in the history of motion pictures, has there been such a showing of brilliant costumes and glitter of jewels, as was apparent among the distinguished "extras" in this scene in "Experience."

"Oliver Twist" Is Hailed as True Screen Masterpiece

A great many of the patrons of the New Park theatre this afternoon went to enjoy a screened series of anti-cs performed by the screen's most gifted and adorable boy. They remained to marvel at the genius of a real actor to whom comedy is but one of many forms of expression. Many went impelled by their love for the lad whose image they have watched so many times projected on the silver sheet. They remained to thrill in the presence of a tiny tragedian. Jackie Coogan was the boy. The play was Frank Lloyd's adaptation of Chas. Dickens' "Oliver Twist" presented as a First National Attraction and will be shown at the New Park tonight and Sunday.

It cannot be said that any novel of the length of "Oliver Twist" can

CAN'T SWIM, YET SAVES SEVEN FROM DROWNING

Officer Colan of the San Francisco Mounted Police is the department's champion life saver yet he can't swim a stroke. Dolan can throw a rope as good as any buckaroo that ever rode the range, or the lots of Hollywood, and his horse is as well trained as a cowpony. When swimmers are caught in the undertow or rough water, Dolan rides right into the ocean, his horse being a strong swimmer, until he gets close enough to throw his rope. In this way he has rescued seven from drowning in the past five years.

he set forth either on stage or screen and remain in perfect agreement with the original; but, while some will wish that this or that episode has been chosen from the book rather than what is filmed, it must be conceded that Mr. Lloyd took with a logical hand those portions of the novel that lent themselves best to the medium of the screen and were most readily welded together into a plot paralleling that told by Dickens—the story of how Monks first tried to destroy the soul of Oliver and then plotted to destroy his life. Lon Chaney's performance of the role of Fagin will add laurels even to that much and honorably bedecked actor. Many will claim it to be his most vivid and imaginative creation.

Gladys Brockwell signalizes her return to the screen by a notable performance of the role of Nancy. With most delicate gradations she shows the rehabilitation of a soul until at last she makes the supreme sacrifice of her life for another.

Bill Sikes was played by George

Jackie Coogan as Oliver Twist.

WASH YOUR KIDNEYS BY DRINKING WATER

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers, Also Take Some Salts

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day, also take salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much rich food forms acids which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken; then you may suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids, to help cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year. Advt.

"A Good Advertiser Is a Safe Borrower"

UNDER the bank cashier's wicket every day pass thousands of dollars in loans to the manufacturers of America. They make automobiles or soap, adding machines or candy, talcum powder or furniture.

Why do these business men borrow large sums with confidence?

Because by persistent Advertising they have each created in the great buying public a demand for a particular automobile, a special brand of candy, a particular make of furniture.

They judge the future by the past. What advertising has done, it will do, and do increasingly. There is an inexhaustible fund of good-will for the advertised trademarked product. An idea is sold to the public and kept sold by well-planned reiterated Advertising.
